CHEF AT HOME IDEAS:

Here is a range of Chefs / caterers for you to try if you would like some "in home private dining".

Sisters Catering

Two Sisters are based in a neighbouring village and they can do dinner parties with waitressing services. They have been working across Herefordshire for over 25 years but are old school so no website, snazzy menus or photos to look at. They have catered for us for many different events and it is always excellent.
